U.S. Patent and Trademark Office PTOL-303 (Rev. 11-03) Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: Applicant's arguments are not considered persuasive. The examiner respectfully disagrees with applicant that the saveSnapshot behavior does not dynamically generate a new document containing user data and believes a newly created document was generated when the user data was saved locally in persisten form at a selected location on the user's hard drive.

With respect to Applicant's argument pertaining to the script block, the examiner respectfully disagrees with the Applicant and refers to the Response to Arguments section of the Final Office Action.

The examiner also would like to point out that the code as listed in the saveSnapshot behavior are not a limiting factor and are merely examples of possible functionality. It also appears to the Examiner that the reference to the "save document 800 (Fig. 8)" on pages 32 and 33 of Applicant's remarks should reference Fig. 7 item 700 (Fig. 8 is the load document)..
